

MainCal Dyeline Services

Consultancy

NDT MainCal are pleased to provide consultancy on specifying equipment to provide a cost effective solution to satisfy the requirements of virtually any dye penetrant standard. If required operating procedures, level 3 services and operator training can be provided by our sister company AIT enabling us to offer a true turn key package including on site equipment calibration and maintenance.

Equipment

Dip tanks: can be manufactured in any required size from stainless steel complete with lift off or pneumatically operated hinged lid.

Wash of Stations: can be manufactured in any required size from stainless steel and supplied with water heater, air wash off spray gun and pressure / temperature gauges as required..

Powder Storms: can be manufactured in any required size from stainless steel and are supplied with safety interlocked, pneumatically operated lid , viewing port (s), user friendly PLC based programmable Process Controller and safety system.

Viewing Areas; can be manufactured in any required size from powder coated steel and fire proof blackout fabric supplied with viewing table (s) , turntable units lighting equipment as required.

Waste Management: filter units and sump tanks can be supplied to satisfy the most stringent requirements.

Dying Ovens: ovens of any size can be supplied

For further information or initial consultation please do not hesitate to contact us.

Recently Installed MainCal Dyeline Equipment

